THE AIMS OF ACDN

"To take action - notably by calling for a referendum - to promote nuclear, biological and chemical disarmament in an integral, universal and controlled manner, in the context of a genuine system of international security. To take or support initiatives - local, regional, national and international initiatives, which may be public or private, political, cultural, economic, social or judicial - that contribute to disarmament, to general security, to respect for human beings, to cooperation, solidarity and peace, to make the world liveable for all human beings and to protect the Earth" (Article 2 of ACDN's Constitution, May 1996)
