The Flame of Nuclear Disarmament burns again at Saintes

A symbolic gesture, the lighting of the Flame of Nuclear Disarmament... Two years after the first National Days for Nuclear Disarmament, the Saintes-based group ACDN made another innovation by organising with the Network "Out of the Nuclear Age" a Colloquium about how to abolish Military and Non-military Nuclearism. Linking the two events, the Flame of Nuclear Disarmament was re-lit by the Mayor of Saintes near the Town Hall.
